FRANCHISE IS TO BE SOUGHT

Proposal Is Made in Council to Acquire Undertaking of Sooke Water Co. Established 1912

EASY FINANCIAL TERMS OUTLINED TO COUNCIL

Repeal Act Would Be Necessary in Order to Validate Purchase of Control by Victoria

THE City of Victoria proposes to acquire the Sooke Harbor Water Company's franchise, the expropriation to be effected by an amendment act of the Legislature has been passed for the purpose of cancelling the measure of 1912.

The city proposes to pay the sum of $15,534, considerably less than the present estimated value of the undertaking, being a figure which will yield a satisfactory revenue to the city.

Alternatively to payment of the purchase sum out of current revenue, the city will propose to be allowed the diversion of certain by-law proceeds to meet the liability.

The matter was presented in City Council last evening in the form of a report from the water committee and advisory water board. The report reviewed the history of the company coming into being in 1912, and its agreement with the city ratified by the Legislature on March 3, 1912.

The report stressed the advantage of recovery by the city of the rights conferred under the 1912 act which had been voluntarily relinquished in the Sooke area by that agreement. It recommended an appeal to the Legislature to secure the repeal of the act.

Mayor Penfold's statement:

"I think this is a sound business deal that will commend itself to this council and to the citizens of Victoria," said the Mayor.

"For a moderate sum we are getting an asset which is valuable; we are restoring to the city rights it should, in my opinion, never have parted with. We will now keep in contact our water charter granted to us in good faith in the year 1912."

"This is important to the city. I am satisfied that the water supply is well and efficiently handled, and we must for all time in the future keep full and proper control of the same."

The special virtue of this deal is the reasonable price and the keeping intact of our valuable and important water rights.

"In this connection bear in mind that the rights which were granted to the water company were not put to a vote of the people, nor were the provisions of the act of Parliament confirming the same; which, by its terms, shut us out of a territory several times the size of the area of Victoria, a territory within the city's original rights under the act of 1912."

"It is necessary to go to the Legislature because the act confirming the company's rights and their franchise was created by act of the Legislature, and therefore must be repealed by that authority. It has also been deemed advisable as a matter of finance and for the saving of expense that we be at liberty to use a certain bond issue, authorized, but now no longer required; to do this authorization of the Legislature is necessary."

"As a matter of fact, we now find that it is too late to prepare and submit a by-law to be voted upon at the forthcoming city election."

Ten Per Cent Profit

In view of the foregoing and in view of the fact that for the year 1925 the net return to the Sooke Harbor Water Company was $1,800, which would show a net profit to the City of Victoria of over ten per cent on the proposed purchase price, I therefore unreservedly recommend that this deal be completed, the agreement signed and a bill be brought before the Legislature to repeal the water company's act and to confirm and vest in the city all of the water company's rights."

Mr. James Hunter Explains How Orders for Liquor From United States Purchasers Are Filled

ANNUAL TURNOVER OF COMPANY IS $700,000

Captain Chas. Bright Informs Inquiry How American Craft Pick Up Cargoes on Beaches in Gulf

EXPLANATION by Mr. James Hunter, president of the Consolidated Exporters, of how orders for liquor are taken here over the long distance telephone or by telegraph from United States cities on the Pacific Coast, and how the liquor is conveyed from this port by vessel to islands in the Gulf, where they are called for by American craft and taken into the republic to the south, featured yesterday's sessions of the Royal Commission investigating the affairs of the Dominion Department of Customs and Excise, and liquor smuggling between here and the United States and Mexico, at the Court House.

"The annual turnover of the Victoria branch of the Consolidated Exporters is between $600,000 and $700,000," Mr. Hunter said in response to a query from Hon. Newton Wesley Rowell, K.C., chief counsel for the Commission.

Chief Justice Brown remarked, "Quite a modest sum."

Consolidation of Companies

Mr. Hunter testified that the Consolidated Exporters were incorporated on August 25, 1922. He was president of the company, but didn't hold any shares in it. The head office was in Vancouver. The concern was a consolidation of between sixteen and twenty exporting companies. He was interested in the Pithers & Lister firm, which holds $70,000 worth of stock in the Consolidated Exporters, which made all purchases and all sales for the companies did not carry on business.

Mr. G. W. Norgan and Mr. R. Swanson, of Vancouver, were joint managers of the concern, the vice-president being Mr. G. W. Norgan. Witness was in charge of the Victoria office, and spent ninety-five per cent of his time here.

Mr. Rowell asked witness if the Consolidated Exporters exported duty paid liquors.

"Yes," replied Mr. Hunter.

All kinds of liquor exported

"What classes of liquor do you export?"

"All kinds, although very little beer. Most of the liquor is bought from the Old Course."

This beautifully situated home was formerly owned by Mr. F. W. Jones, who some time ago sold it to Mrs. Fuller, the owner from whom the purchase was made in turn by Mr. Nichol.

For some little time Mr. Nichol has been desirous of purchasing a residence in the city, where he intends to make his home. He has already a beautiful country home.

The transaction was put through by the Royal Trust and by the firm of A. W. Jones & Co.

Republican Senator Is Elected in Maine

PORTLAND, Maine, Nov. 29.—Retention of Republican control of the United States Senate was assured by the election today of Arthur H. Gould, Republican, to succeed the late Senator Charles W. Fulton, Democrat, who will complete the term of the late Senator Bert M. Fernald, expiring in 1931.

Charges filed by members of the Klan and supported by Governor Joseph B. Brewer, Republican, that Gould had gone beyond the legal limit in his primary campaign, stirred up great pre-election excitement. The charges were turned down by the secretary of state at a formal hearing as not backed by sufficient evidence.

Maine has never elected a Democratic Senator.

EXPLOSION WRECKS ENTIRE BUILDING

THREE WOMEN AND MAN ARE BURIED UNDER DEBRIS OF WALLS IN LONDON, ONT.

They Are Recovered by Firemen, Though Fire Breaks Out When Structure Collapses

LONDON, Ont., Nov. 29.—One woman dead, two women in hospital and one injured, one fireman badly cut by falling bricks and glass, several other persons more or less severely injured by falling debris, and property damage conservatively estimated at $75,000, sums up results of a terrific explosion which, at 6:45 o'clock tonight wrecked five stores in the downtown section of London.

Mrs. Matilda Wilson, occupying the third floor apartment in the wrecked building, was buried in the collapse of the structure and her body was not recovered until this morning.

This building was completely demolished, the front wall falling forward into the street and one of the side walls falling inward, Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. Fred Merrill, her sister, Minnie Fontana, and Hume Depotte, were buried in the wreckage.

PRINCE GEORGE WELCOMED HERE

Premier Oliver, Mayor Pendray and Official Party Greet Fourth Son of the King on Board Empress

HAD BRIEF SHORE STAY ON MONDAY AFTERNOON

Is En Route Home to England to Spend Christmas With Royal Family From Appointment on China Station

PRINCE GEORGE

FOR an hour and a half yesterday Prince George, youngest son of the King and Queen, was on shore in Victoria from the liner Empress of Russia, in which he had crossed the Pacific from China, en route home to spend Christmas with the Royal family.

Until the arrival at the wharf it was unknown whether His Royal Highness would come ashore or not. The Lieutenant-Governor, in the hope that he would, had drafted a short programme covering a brief visit to the Parliament Buildings, the Provincial library, archives and museum, a drive through the city to the naval base and barracks, and new dry-dock at Esquimalt, returning to Government House by way of the Dallas Road and Marine Drive, by which time the Prince would be ready for tea at Government House.

Upon the arrival of the boat His Honor, through an aide-de-camp, Mr. W. C. Nichol, A.D.C., submitted the Prince, who readily acquiesced in its being carried out.

At the Wharf

To meet him upon his arrival were Commander P. W. Nelles, R.C.N., who had been appointed Aide-de-camp to His Excellency the Governor-General, and who welcomed the Prince on behalf of His Excellency. The Lieutenant-Governor was, very unfortunately, confined to his bed with a severe cold, and was unable to be present in person on the wharf, but was represented there by Lieutenant-Commander North. In accordance with requests from Governor-General, Brigadier-General J. M. Ross, D.O.C., and Mayor Pendray, who had been invited to meet the Prince at Government House, were also at the wharf. There were also noticed to meet His Royal Highness, Brigadier-General Fane, who will escort the Prince to Canada, and Mr. A. M. D. Fairbairn, secretary to His Honor, Captain Underwood, and Commander E. Beetham, superintendent of the Pacific Ocean steamer of the C.P.R. Chief Fry and Inspector Boulton had charge of a police detachment at the wharf.

The warships were decorated and a banner bore the inscription: "Greetings and Good Luck From Victoria." On debarking with Lieutenant J. E. Halsey, R.N., the Prince was received with cheers.

The death of King Ferdinand of Rumania has been reported several times from various sources. The Allgemeine Zeitung, of Vienna, has published an unconfirmed report from Bucharest that Ferdinand died on Saturday.

The Bucharest dispatch mentioned the possibility of the proclamation of a republic.

The explanation given for the secrecy maintained was that it was considered advisable not to disclose the fact of the King's death pending Queen Marie's return.

Flags were said to have been half-staffed and theatres and stores closed Saturday afternoon in Bucharest. In Transylvania, formerly a Hungarian city but now part of Rumania.

Gravest Situation Since Boxer Revolt Develops in China

Sir Austen Chamberlain Informs House He Has Received Word From British Community at Hankow, Now Held by Cantonese, Expressing Fear of Un-toward Incidents Involving Bloodshed

British Government Despite Concern Felt Declines to Take Any Precipitate Action

LONDON, Nov. 29.—"The gravest crisis since the Boxer Rebellion," is how British correspondents in China describe the present situation there, and the concern is fully reflected here in official quarters. The Government, however, maintaining its wary attitude which has prevailed throughout the prolonged Chinese troubles, is still declining to be hurried into any precipitate action, based on what may possibly turn out to be inadequate information.

Former Premier J. Ramsay MacDonald, making his first appearance in the House of Commons since a holiday for his health, asked Foreign Secretary Sir Austen Chamberlain to give the House information on affairs in China.

Sir Austen, in reply, outlined the serious developments which have occurred in Hankow during the past week, growing out of a threatened general anti-foreign strike and boycott there. He said that the Commissioner of Customs hoped that it might be possible to keep the Customs House opened and to maintain an electric light service for the foreign national in Hankow, but admitted that this might be difficult if the Cantonese House, which is within the Chinese city, should be picketed.

According to the latest reports, he said, the situation appeared easier. The Chinese Union had presented its demands, and they were understood not to be of an impossible nature. Sir Austen added, however, that perhaps this was only a preliminary move.

He then asked Mr. MacDonald to repeat this question on Wednesday, when he thought he would be able to give further information.

Replying to further questions, the Foreign Secretary said that he had received a communication from the British community at Hankow expressing fear of untoward incidents involving bloodshed, and stating that the protection afforded by the British naval forces there was considered inadequate. The Admiralty and Ministry, Sir Austen said, were giving this matter attention.

Forces There Now

Apparently the government has no present intention of ordering further naval units to China, since officials consider that there are sufficient British units on the Yangtze to deal with any crisis. Twelve destroyers and an aircraft carrier, sent to China from Malta in September, are ready for eventualities, in addition to the regular river patrol. One difficulty at the present time is the fact that the waters of the river are so low as not to be safely navigable for naval vessels.

It is understood that the situation will be left largely to the chief British commanders on the scene, and it is hoped that if any action should become necessary, it will be of international character. There is considerable talk of a general strike in the United States which will take if the threatened general strike should effect United States citizens.

The recommendations of the extrajudicially commission concerning the position of the foreign nations in China were published here in full. But in the presence of the grave situation in Hankow, have attracted but little attention.

The advance of the Cantonese forces and the resignation of the Peking government have resulted in close attention to this phase of the entire Chinese situation. Whether the Cantonese government has become a concrete governing body with which the foreign nations can properly deal, is a question on which opinions differ widely.

Strike at Shanghai

SHANGHAI, Nov. 29.—The first manifestation of a contemplated advance of the Cantonese toward Shanghai, the last real stronghold of Marshal Puan Fong, eastern ruler, was felt here today when the Chinese general chamber of commerce of Shanghai received threatening letters demanding that a strike be called here.

This follows threats of a general strike at Hankow which has been seized by Labor unions.

Cantonese Near Foochow

AMOI, China, Nov. 29.—The victorious Canton southern Chinese army continued to force its way north today and was within striking distance of Foochow, an important treaty port of 700,000 population, the capital city of Fukien province.

In the general disorder and excitement which characterized the advance, plunderers were active. Hundreds of residents, including many wealthy families in Foochow and the northern cities of Fukien Province were in flight today with their families and belongings. The plan is also the present campaign goal of the conquering Cantonese army.

Rumanian Government Buys Arms in Italy

These destroyers will carry five large calibre guns.

Likewise the firm is to deliver the latest type of submarine with "moose ship" in thirty-two months. It is reported that the arrangements were made at the time of the visit of the Italian mission, headed by Marshal Radoglio.

ENGLISH CONTESTS EXCITE INTEREST

NON-IN-LAW OF LATE MARQUIS CURZON IS CANDIDATE IN SMETHWICK

Other By-Elections of More Than Usual Significance in Hull and in Chelmsford

LONDON, Nov. 29.—Three by-elections of more than ordinary interest are in progress just now in Central Hull, Chelmsford and Smethwick. Labor is taking a prominent part and is making the most of the government's alleged mishandling of the coal situation and of industrial problems in general.

Lieutenant-Commander J. M. Kenworthy, former Liberal, is Labor's candidate in Hull, while Colonel C. J. Keir carries the Liberal banner and Commander L. E. Gaunt represents the Conservatives. In Chelmsford, the candidates are Lieutenant-Colonel C. K. Howard Baylis, Conservative; Mr. S. W. Robinson, Liberal; and Major W. H. Moller, Labor.

Mr. Oswald Mosley, husband of Lady Cynthia, a daughter of the late Marquis Curzon, is the Labor candidate in Smethwick, but the National Labor Party Executive declares his nomination was irregular. The Smethwick Labor men probably will hold another meeting and renominate Mosley. Mr. Edwin Baylis, prominent in the younger Liberal movement, represents the Liberal party.

WELCOME ACCORDED NEW PARTY LEADER

proceedings she was presented with a beautiful basket of roses, the presentation being made by Miss Daphne Pooley, daughter of the House leader of the party.

Mr. Pooley, in the capacity of chairman of the meeting, called to the attention of the gathering the fact that the first election that Dr. Tolmie had won was a lot farther back than was generally credited to him. It was in reality in 1879, when in the Victoria High School he was selected by popular vote as the most popular boy in the school. The present meeting had been called on behalf of the citizens of Victoria and district to welcome home a good fellow townsman. They all realized that the position that he was now filling was never sought by Dr. Tolmie. It was forced upon him by 500 delegates of the Conservative party assembled in convention.

Dr. Tolmie was given a very hearty reception. As he entered the room the gathering broke into applause, singing also "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." This was repeated when he was later called to the platform to address the gathering. He said that he could not possibly have had a better reception on his return than he had had. The reception that had been accorded to him at Kamloops when his name was suggested for the leadership could not have been better.

"Conservative Good Fighters"

The leader recalled the events of the convention. He said that in the contests that took place the splendid fighting spirit of the Conservative party had been shown.

He made reference to the retirement of Mr. W. J. Bowser from the leadership, paying a compliment to the splendid fighting qualities that had always characterized him as a leader of the party. For a long, long time he had been in the front line of the party which he had put up with. He had always been ready to render assistance in whatever contest was on.

Dr. Tolmie said that the retirement of Mr. Bowser had appeared to him in a peculiar way which was intensified by the fact that it was the second one that he had seen in a few weeks' time in Canada. In this connection he referred to the great loss to the party when one of the greatest men in Canada, Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, had retired in spite of all efforts to have him remain. It was regarded as a tragic event that a man of his ability should give up public life.

When he returned to the Pacific Coast he had witnessed at the convention in Kamloops a second great man retire from public life. He could not help having a feeling of sadness in connection with it.

Compliment to Mr. Pooley

The new leader also paid a compliment to Mr. R. H. Pooley, the House leader. He had always found Mr. Pooley a square shooter, who had acquitted himself with credit to himself and to the party with which he was identified. There had been at the convention an endorsement of the activity of the Spanish Conservatives. Now that it was all over he hoped that all would fall in line and lend help in the contest to be faced.

Recalling the scenes of the convention and the attempt to induce him to take the leadership, he said that he had refused, but he never had such a trial in his life.

"It was a most trying thing to have to say to 500 Conservative friends 'no' when offered the leadership in a unanimous way," he said.

Continuing the record of the convention, Dr. Tolmie said that it was only when he was faced with the feeling that the convention might be largely abortive if he further refused, that he had consented to take on the duty. He had felt that he had been well treated by the citizens of Victoria on five occasions, and that it was his duty to accept the position for the party.

Having accepted, and been given the enthusiastic reception that was accorded him, he was determined to do all in his power to accomplish the ends hoped for the selection of him as the leader.

"As long as I am in this position," he said, "there will be no 'I' party, but it will be a 'we' party."

He pointed out that he had been assured of the assistance of the party and would go on with the undertaking.

Wanted Advice

"I have already been taking advice in the matter and will continue to take advice from those who have any constructive suggestions to offer."

Tablet to War Dead Unveiled by Prince

This is the Tablet Unveiled by the Prince of Wales in Westminster Abbey Just Before the Imperial Conference in Honor of the British Empire's One Million Dead Who Gave Their Lives During the War "In Every Quarter of the Earth and on All Its Seas."

Tolmie said that he would not go into these in detail. One had been passed which he thought would be of value, and that was the resolution regarding the stabilizing of the Civil Service. He had found the Civil Service, both in Victoria and in Ottawa, a good body of men who were trying to do their best for the country.

Another resolution called for the lowering of the taxation where at all possible. He said that he knew that it was necessary to have money to carry on the affairs of the Province. There had been an increase of the taxation too fast, however, he felt. If there were higher taxes in this country than in the United States it worked out to the disadvantage of the country.

Another resolution which was commendable was that which called for manufacture to the fullest extent of the timber of the Province within the bounds of British Columbia.

Agriculture had been dealt with and the importance of giving attention to the increase in the sheep production of the Province was stressed. Several other items embraced in the resolutions were touched upon, including the equalizing of the tariffs on farm products between the United States and Canada, and seasonal tariffs to protect the Canadian products of the farm from dumping from the United States markets.

Better Terms Sought

The reaffirming of Sir Richard McBride's policy as to better terms as it affected the railway belt and the Peace River lands was also dealt with by the convention. Irrigation improvements were also sought for and the matter of marketing for the farmer a good deal of attention had been continued in office at Ottawa.

He said that he believed in manufacturing as much at home as possible. Another way to help the province was to buy home products. He was a believer in the slogan, "keep your dollar at home, and get another chance at it."

He dealt with the question of immigration and also the methods of encouraging industry in the province. In this connection the leader said, "I do not believe in cheap conditions. Wages should be such as to give the wage earner the opportunity to live and educate his family. I believe in the fellow that works," he added.

In concluding the meeting, Mr. Pooley called out, "Pack All Your Troubles in Your Old Kit Bag," which was sung with enthusiasm.

A program of music was given during the evening. Among those who took part were Findlay's orchestra; Mrs. Wright and Miss Wright, who rendered vocal solos; Misses Lee and Miss Warnick, who contributed mandolin selections; Mr. Bob Webb, who rendered vocal numbers; comic songs and sketches by Messrs. Impett, Blair and Tupperman; and singing and dancing by Mr. George Bryden.

RECEPTION PLANNED FOR MRS. S. F. TOLMIE ON MONDAY AFTERNOON

A reception is to be accorded to Mrs. S. F. Tolmie, wife of the newly elected leader of the Conservative party for British Columbia, on Monday next. This will take place in the rooms of the Conservative party in the Campbell Building from 4 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon.

The event will be under the auspices of the Women's Conservative Club of the city. All Conservative women are asked to attend the reception.

Children's Colds

Are quickly, pleasantly relieved by Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine

If children's colds are got rid of promptly there will be less tendency to pneumonia and consumption in later life. It is the neglect of a hanging cold that weakens the lungs and develops into serious trouble.

No treatment for coughs and colds was ever so popular with the children as Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. It is so pleasant to the taste, so delightfully soothing and healing and affords relief so quickly that children soon turn to it instinctively when choked up with a cold or annoyed by coughing.

It is mother's favorite treatment for croup and bronchitis, for she knows it will bring relief when the midnight coughing wakes her in. It is wise to always have a bottle at hand for prompt use in emergency.

RESPECT PAID MEMORY OF LATE PARTY LEADER

Kamloops Convention Records Its Affectionate Regard for Work of Sir Richard McBride

The recent convention of the Conservative Party held in Kamloops while it was occupied with most exacting duties connected with the selection of a leader was not unmindful of the great duty which had been done the party by Sir Richard McBride, under whose leadership party lines were adopted, and who served his party so well.

A resolution setting forth the affectionate regard in which his memory was cherished by the Conservative Party was passed at the convention. To Col. C. W. Peck, V.C., M.P., who had been a life-long friend of the late Sir Richard, fell the honor of proposing this resolution. A strong personal friend of the late leader in earlier days in New Westminster, Col. Peck was a regular visitor upon Sir Richard as an occasion permitted it while he was serving in France, and Sir Richard was General of the province in London.

The resolution was seconded by another life-long friend of the late leader, Mr. H. L. Edmunds, of New Westminster.

The resolution which was carried by a standing vote of the convention was as follows:

"Resolved that this convention wishes to record its affectionate memory of the late Sir Richard McBride and of his devoted life and services to the Conservative Party and his country, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to Lady McBride and his mother, Mrs. Mary McBride."

MR. R. L. MAITLAND PAYS VISIT HERE AFTER CONVENTION

Mr. R. L. Maitland, of Vancouver, accompanied by Mrs. Maitland, spent the week-end in Victoria. Mr. Maitland is ex-president of the Conservative Association of the Province, and throughout the convention at Kamloops presided over all the sessions with credit to himself and to the party.

The task which Mr. Maitland had to perform was not the sinecure which is often the case in conventions of this kind. Throughout it all he showed marked impartiality and in no small measure the smooth running of the convention was due to his ability in the way of fair dealing. He paid a visit to Victoria for the purpose of getting a rest after his strenuous three days in the chair at Kamloops.

The nephew, Cecil Houston Skinner, has been out of work for three years and tramped the streets until he found a job a few months ago.

He said to The Colonist that he had paid a visit to China and Japan, but that his time in each country had been so limited that he was disinclined to comment on conditions as he had found them in the Orient. Mr. Strauss left on the afternoon boat for Seattle, and will proceed directly home.

TAX EXEMPTION FOR ELK LAKE DISCUSSED

Spanish Wants Guarantee That City Will Set Aside Portion of Property for Park Purposes

A delegation of Spanish councillors, headed by Reeve Macnicol, waited upon the public works committee of the City Council at yesterday afternoon's meeting to ask for a guarantee that the city's Elk Lake property, or a portion of it, be set aside for park purposes. The delegation comprised Reeve Macnicol, Councillors Kirkham, Crouch and Graham. The Reeve, in asking that a guarantee be given in regard to a park area on this property, said that the people of the Spanish Municipality were clamoring for something definite in the matter. It was felt by some that the city property should be taxed. He said that if there were Prince Kotohito Kan-in was the patron of the Third Pan-Pacific Science Congress with Premier Reijiro Wakatsuki as the honorary president. They were supported by twenty-seven honorary presidents who were the Ambassadors and Ministers of various foreign countries to Japan and presidents of leading universities and scientific institutions in the country. The president of the Congress was Dr. J. Sakurai, head of the National Research Council and emeritus professor of chemistry at Tokyo Imperial University and a Privy Councillor.

Reeve Macnicol pointed out that it would be unfair to the Spanish Municipality for the city to have the Elk Lake property exempted from taxation if, at some future date, when property prices boomed, the property should be subdivided and sold. The Spanish Municipality would then have been carrying the property on the tax exemption list while the city would reap all the benefits when it came to selling the land.

Canadian Delegates Arrive Home From Pan-Pacific Science Congress in Japan

Dr. H. M. Tory, president of the University of Alberta, and Dr. Jean Fraser, professor of sociology at the University of British Columbia, were among the passengers who arrived from the Orient yesterday on board the liner Empress of Russia. They reported a most successful meeting of the Third Pan-Pacific Science Congress, which was held in Tokyo in the week of October 30, and to which they were delegates. They were feted everywhere and shown the chief attractions of the country during their stay in Japan.

The Congress was attended by about 500 eminent scientists, of whom eighty-nine were official delegates from foreign countries, while the rest were Japanese scientists. More than 400 papers were submitted to the executive office of the Congress to be discussed during the session of the congress.

The delegates represented the United States, Australia, Canada, China, France, England, Hawaii, Hong Kong, Holland, French India, New Zealand, Philippine, Soviet Russia, Straits Settlement and the Federated Malay States.

The period between October 14 and 25 was devoted to excursions to Nikko, while the following two days were spent in a visit to Nikko and Hakone. Upon the conclusion of the regular session of the Congress the foreign delegates visited Kyoto, Nara, Osaka and Kobe from November 12 to 15. Then they visited Miyajima and Kyushu or Shikoku, spending the

HOME FOR CHRISTMAS

Prince George, the sailor of the Royal Family, is a quiet and unassuming young man, like all the other male members of the House of Windsor. His Royal Highness passed through Victoria yesterday. The people of Victoria would have been delighted to show the Prince some attention had circumstances permitted, but Christmas is approaching, time is flying, and it is quite a long way to London.

In the Royal Palaces the home fires are burning brightly now that the strike of the coal miners is practically at an end, and there is plenty of fuel to keep all the home fires burning. Christmas is the season of family reunions. In that respect it is a distinctly British institution. The Prince doubtless is anxious to eat his Christmas dinner at home, and the King and Queen are anxious that the family circle shall be as complete as possible when its members gather around the "festive board."

There will be vacant chairs in many of the households of the land when families assemble for the annual reunion, and the Royal Family is not an exception from the ordinary vicissitudes of life. As the years pass, thoughts of what the future has in store must be in the minds of almost every mature person during the joyous Christmas season. Such thoughts do not occur to those to whom Christmas is primarily dedicated, of course, or it would not be such a joyous season. But such unuttered thoughts are principally accountable for the popularity of Christmas family reunions.

CANADA'S WHEAT KING

The Wheat King of the world is a Canadian, and his royal seat is in Alberta, in the Peace River region, which is said to be the most promising grain producing district in Canada. At least this Alberta has carried off the wheat-growing championship of the world at the Chicago exhibition, and it is not likely anyone in any part of the world will dispute his title. Most of the other world champions are residents of the United States, but the titles they hold are not nearly so important as the title of wheat king. The prize-winning championship is of no value to anybody but the holder of it. The wheat-growing championship is of vast importance to the country which produced the champion, and it is to the individual who won the championship. The reputation of Canada as the producer of the finest wheat in the world has been established upon a permanent foundation, and upon that reputation population and productivity will surely increase.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR WRITING

A contributor to an estimable contemporary, and probably to many other newspapers, says a large number of college graduates, and others, "want to write. Most of them do not know what they want to write—they just want to." Having propounded this profound proposition, the crutite contributor tells everybody who wants to write what they should do in order to write intelligently and interestingly.

In the first place, we are told nobody should attempt to write who does not know something—and knowledge only can be acquired by experience. Imagination of course is but a vain thing when it comes to writing. Experience is the main thing when it comes to writing.

For example, if you are thinking of writing an article on the subject of aviation, you cannot write an article on that subject without going up in the air in a flying machine. If in pursuit of knowledge on the subject of aviation you should happen to come down somewhat unexpectedly from a high altitude, that would be an interesting, even an invaluable, experience. It would be tremendously stimulating to the imagination, and would qualify you to write intelligently on the subject of aviation—provided you happened to survive the first flight in pursuit of knowledge and experience.

We fear there are many contributors to articles to the newspapers who have not taken a course in the art of aviation and therefore are not academically or practically qualified to write intelligently on the subject. And yet we suppose everyone who desires to continue writing articles for the newspapers, whether for profit or pleasure, will have to take a practical course in aviation some day, because we are told that the transportation business of the world will soon be done almost entirely over or through aerial routes.

The British Government is building flying machines that will begin early in the coming year to "link up" or knit together all the far-flung parts of the British Empire. There is, however, one gratifying feature in this interesting announcement. Passengers in the new machines will not be compelled to sit in aerial cockpits wrapped in furs and protected by helmets. The flying machines of the British Government are equipped with all modern conveniences just like ocean steamships. They are equipped with private cabins, dining saloons and smoking rooms. The youthful writer for the newspapers of course scorns such refinements. He is willing to rough it for the purpose of acquiring knowledge and experience. The elderly journalist prefers the comforts to which he has been accustomed in ocean liners and railway trains. He likes to smoke his pipe in peace and tranquility. Under the new conditions of aviation his case will not be absolutely hopeless. He may be persuaded to take the necessary course in aviation when he can fill his pipe and light it in London and puff away at it until he lands in Paris. He may even be willing to take a chance in the air when half an ounce of tobacco will supply all his needs in a trip from Europe to America.

NEED OF POPULATION

We are told that hundreds of thousands of people from all parts of the United States are stampeding into California. The pilgrims are arriving in extra railway trains and steamships. We know that too many Canadians, many of them from British Columbia, are leaving for California. Yet the people of lucky California are not satisfied. They say there is plenty of room in the State for more people, and there seems to be no lack of employment for the strangers. Canadians are in demand and are given preferential treatment.

One California newspaper states that there are thousands of Scotsmen waiting their turn under the quota law for admission to the United States. The California newspaper protests against this law of selection. It declares there is no necessity for the application of the law as far as the State of California is concerned, whatever the conditions may be in other parts of the United States.

Hon. Robert Forke, the new Minister of Immigration, should make a note of the fact that there are thousands of Scotsmen in Glasgow waiting their turn to be permitted to enter the United States. The opportunities for healthy and industrious men, whatever their nationality, are quite as numerous and just as promising in British Columbia as they are in California. The climatic conditions in British Columbia are certainly not inferior to the climatic conditions in California. The average British immigrant may not know that, because the popular but erroneous view in Great Britain is that there is no difference between the climate of Eastern Canada and the climate of British Columbia, while there is just as much difference between the climate of Eastern Canada and the climate of this part of British Columbia as there is between the climate of the Eastern United States and the climate of California. If this misconception in the minds of the people of Great Britain were dissipated by accurate knowledge of the actual conditions, British Columbia would soon be one of the most populous and the most prosperous of all the Canadian Provinces.

Practical science has discovered the secret of the eel. Practical science has gone to the depths of the ocean somewhere off Bermuda, and the eggs of all the eels of all the waters of the world have been found there. There is nothing of importance for science to do now but grasp the atom, which is even more slippery than the eel, and split it up into its speculative electrons and protons. When the secret of the atom is unfolded proud man will know almost as much as the Tempter said the woman would know after she had eaten of the fruit of the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

The lesser "literary" lights of London are following the example set by that brilliant luminary, H. G. Wells, writing and purveying scandals and libels about persons of exalted position. Dirt fetches a high price in the "literary" market.

PROS AND CONS ON TARIFF DEBATED

SUBJECT IS DISCUSSED AT MEETING OF ROUND TABLE LAST EVENING

Mr. Straith Presented Arguments of Two Parties in Canada on Topic

The tariff question will not loom so prominently in Canada in the future, Sir Knight W. T. Straith told the members of the Round Table last evening at the weekly dinner at the Empress Hotel. He was talking on the Canadian tariff issue, and remarked that since 1911, notwithstanding several changes of Government, there had been little change in tariff schedules.

Mr. Straith also thought that the operations of the newly appointed Tariff Board, by providing expert information for the guidance of the Government in power would tend to restrict radical changes.

The speaker argued that experience showed that the political leader in Canada who could devise the best method of taxation, and the consumer, the most votes. Having pointed out that the issue in Canada was not Protection versus Free Trade, but High Tariff versus Low Tariff, he took up the arguments on both sides.

He said that the high tariff man maintained that his system had the effect of diversifying and protecting the occupations of the country. It allowed outlets for the younger generation from the farming and other producing classes, and it allowed them to enter industry. It made a market for the transportation companies by providing diversified freight, and it placed high tariff on foreign produce, it helped the farmer to get good prices and the industries provided payrolls. It had a tendency to make the Dominion self contained.

The low tariff exponent maintained that his schedule provided for both the producer and the consumer, the producer by reducing the cost of the tools and machinery he needed; the consumer by keeping prices down. He was in favor of ending the tariff on an infant industry to get on its feet. Low tariff was sufficient to provide a revenue for the country and the low tariff man maintained that a high tariff merely allowed the manufacturer to pocket a high profit without benefiting the revenue of the country at all.

Mr. Straith gave many instances of the effect of high and low tariff on both the agriculturalist and the manufacturer.

Spilt comment followed on the speech, and a hearty vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. H. D. Patterson and seconded by Mr. F. E. Winslow, and transmitted to Mr. Straith through the chairman.

Children Go Skating; Ice Breaks; They Drown

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., Nov. 29.—Despite heroic efforts of a pet collie dog to rescue them, Jean and Mary Smith, fourteen and nine respectively, living on Jones' Island, were drowned here Saturday when the ice on which they were skating collapsed. A neighbor heard the dog barking and noticed the two children had disappeared, gave the alarm. By the time help arrived the dog had also disappeared. When the bodies of the children were recovered from the water teeth marks of the dog were found on the younger child, showing that the dog had attempted to drag the children to shore. The body of the dog was later recovered close to the scene of the tragedy.

Finances of Willows Race Privilege Aired

Public Works Committee, on Recommendation of Alderman Woodward as Amended by Alderman Clearhue, Will Hold Inquiry Into Finances

In announcing that he would seek re-election, Ald. E. S. Woodward brought in a report at last night's meeting of the City Council, criticizing the information given him, as chairman of the public works committee, by officials of the British Columbia Agricultural Association at last Friday's meeting of the committee to discuss the Willows lease.

Ald. Woodward stated that he was not satisfied with figures given, and that he intended to have an inquiry from the Parliament Buildings and the report of certain finances did not agree with statements made by the officials at the Friday meeting. He contended that if the financial statement was wrong, and if the information was right, then the financial report was wrong.

Because of this he recommended that a formal inquiry should be held by the public works committee, with full power under the Municipal Act, to investigate the finances of the British Columbia Agricultural Association.

In objecting to this course, Ald. Clearhue expressed the opinion that it was "not in good taste," and moved an amendment. "Why bring these figures before the bar, when we may carry on the investigation in a much milder form?" His amendment, which was to the effect that an ordinary inquiry be made, was carried, and Comptroller D. A. MacDonald was asked to investigate the tenders for the race track. The public works committee will sit on Friday afternoon, with members of the Council and officials of the British Columbia Agricultural Association invited to attend.

Ald. Clearhue, in referring to Ald. Woodward's recommendation, said it was "nothing but a political move."

Ald. Brown, in supporting the original motion moved by Ald. Woodward, and seconded by Ald. Marchant, said that the investigation might just as well be held in clear away the shadow that would overhang the British Columbia Agricultural Association following the publicity it would get in the press. Ald. Brown said that the investigation should be held in a very embarrassing position to the association. Toward the end of the meeting, when the matter had practically been forgotten in the discussion of other subjects, W. H. Menzies, secretary of the association, appeared with information with which he endeavored to clear up the misunderstanding. After hearing the explanation, Ald. Woodward said he was still not satisfied with the figures given him, and thought that members of the association had acted very discourteously toward the Council.

Ald. Woodward's official statement to the Council reads as follows:

The Statement
"I rise to formally bring to the notice of the City Council some facts of the very gravest import concerning the affairs of the B.C. Agricultural Association in order that such steps may be taken as may be deemed advisable in the circumstances."

"In the month of October the Association supplied council members with an interim financial statement purporting to cover its affairs up to September 10, 1926. On that statement appears an item under 'Receipts' of $225.00 shown as 'Percentage of racing grand stand.' This was at that time verbally explained by the association directors as five per cent of the grandstand receipts in excess of $2,000.00. On Friday last at a meeting of the Public Works Committee the association directors stated that the amount received on this entry was $225.00 and that it represents twenty per cent of the grandstand receipts in excess of $2,000.00. As chairman of the committee I asked the association directors to furnish the City Solicitor with a copy of the racing specifications actually used in calling for tenders for racing concessions in 1924 and this they undertook to do. In accordance with this undertaking Mr. Pringle was this morning furnished with the required information, which was dictated by the secretary of the association to Mr. Pringle's private secretary. The percentage on this occasion was again corrected and was stated to be twenty-five per cent of the excess grandstand receipts over $2,000.00. PEKING MINISTRY RESIGNS OFFICE

CHINA IS AGAIN WITHOUT EVEN NOMINAL GOVERNMENT TO REPRESENT COUNTRY

War Lords Required to Assume Responsibility for Administration They Control

PEKING, Nov. 29.—With its enemies organizing for a concerted attack upon it, the Peking Government once more is without a Cabinet or recognized head. In telegrams sent today to the war lords who appointed them and dictated their acts, the Cabinet members declared their determination to quit the responsibilities of office.

Daily reports have come to Peking of the successes of the armies of the Cantonese Government, of one province after another going over to the Southerners, whose battle cry is one Government for all China and China for the Chinese. In addition, the Kuomintang army of the Peking Government, deposed last April, which is in sympathy with Canton, is said to be preparing to march from Kanku Province to join the Cantonese troops coming north after their victories in the Yangtze provinces over the forces of Marshal Wu Peifu and Sun Chuan-feng, not long ago styled Dictators respectively of Central and Eastern China.

Faced with this situation, without power to enforce its orders even in the vicinity of Peking, and with an empty treasury, the Cabinet quit as a body and requested the war lords to assume responsibility for the Government which they actually controlled.

QUARTER MILLION MARK LOOMS UP

Report Will Be Made Tonight on Progress of Christ Church Cathedral Building Fund

An unusually large number of subscriptions for the new Christ Church Cathedral yesterday sent the building fund up to $243,423.85. The generous response from many persons during the past few days has given great encouragement to the new cathedral committee, and it is hoped that the grand total of the fund may be even larger before this evening, when a public meeting will be held in the Memorial Hall, at 8:15 o'clock, to review the year's effort for the building fund. Intending contributors who wish to have their subscriptions included in the total announced tonight, are asked to deliver their contributions to the Memorial Hall, Vancouver Street, or to Littlefield's store, Government Street, before 5 p.m. An official subscription list is published in this issue of The Colonist.

This morning the Bishop of the diocese will be the celebrant at Holy Communion in the Cathedral at 8 o'clock, and devotional services will be conducted at intervals until 1 p.m. by the Rev. Wm. Cooper, of Vancouver. At 4 p.m. a conference of clergy and laymen, with the Bishop as chairman, will take place in the Memorial Hall, to consider how best to "follow up" the cathedral campaign for the benefit of church work generally.

Arrangements have been made for a young people's meeting, beginning with a supper at 8:15 p.m., when the Bishop and Mr. George Pither, of Brantford, Ont., will be the principal guests. Young people from all Anglican churches in the district have been invited to this gathering, at which all young people's work in the church will be discussed. Mr. Pither is second vice-president of the Dominion Anglican Young People's Association.

This evening will witness, it is hoped, a large attendance of canvassers and workers for the church and the new cathedral at a public meeting, announced to open at 8:15 o'clock, in the Memorial Hall auditorium. The Bishop will make an official statement of the building fund and is also expected to suggest the steps which will be taken leading to the construction of the nave. The principal address will be delivered by Mr. Geo. B. Nicholson, who is chairman of the National Laymen's Committee of the Anglican Church. Mr. Nicholson will give a layman's view of the church work, and the part that men should take in the work.

All arrangements for the day are part of the observance of St. Andrew's Day and also the tenth anniversary of the Bishop's consecration to the diocese.

Men Trapped in Room Die When House Burns

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J., Nov. 28.—Trapped in their room on the second floor of an old shanty at English Creek, nine miles from here, early yesterday, George Forman, forty-five, and Charles Lake, forty-three, both of English Creek, were burned to death while relatives and friends who rushed to the scene of the blaze were compelled to stand helplessly by, unable to aid.

Lack of water to combat the flames which were fed by twenty barrels of fuel oil stored in the building kept rescuers away.

UNDER THE CLOCK

City Hall Activities in Brief

A letter of appreciation from the board of directors of the Royal Jubilee Hospital for the city's further grant of $12,000 for the last night's meeting of the City Council.

Major R. P. Clark, chairman of the memorial avenue committee, drew the attention of the City Council last night to the fact that although very favorable progress was being made on this avenue, that the section within the city appeared neglected. Alderman Marchant explained that the work of laying trees was started at the Mount Douglas end of Shisbourne Street, and that the trees would eventually reach the city. The communication was referred to the parks committee for report. Alderman Woodward said that he would favor an extra expenditure in addition to the amount given the Saanich parks and beaches committee, for the purpose of improving the city section.

In adopting the finance committee's report the City Council last night authorized the following purchases for sinking fund purposes: $3,000 City of Victoria 4 1/2 per cent bonds, due May 1, 1944, at $95.30; $1,184 Province of Ontario, guaranteeing T.N.O.R. 3 1/4 per cent debenture stock, due June 30, 1928, price $85.57.

With the City Council endorsing the agreement for arbitration upon the price of water to be paid by Oak Bay to the city, the matter will now proceed to the Provincial Board of Arbitration, whose decision will be final. The right is reserved, however, that should either party be not satisfied with the decision, the city and Oak Bay will revert to the present position at the end of four years.

The City Council at its meeting last night endorsed the report of the Court of Revision and left with the Mayor the appointment of a committee of three to see the practical carrying out of its recommendations.

First United Church Entertain at Orphanage

One of the most enjoyable entertainments that the young people's department of First United Church have had yet was that staged in the Protestant Orphanage last night, when the members of the department turned out in full strength to act as hosts to the orphans. Miss Dora Rogers was social convener, and a well-laden table greeted the youngsters when they sat down for supper.

Following supper was an excellent programme. Mr. E. Breckenridge was in charge. After a number of games, in which all took part, selections were played by the orchestra of the First United Orphanage. A special feature of the evening was a PUNCH and Judy show, operated by Mr. Farmer. The audience was kept in continual merriment by the antics of "Gordie" and "Arthur." Miss Gladys Lea and Miss May Wainwright, accompanied by Mr. Jack Smith, provided selections on the mandolin. Mr. Warren Martin conducted a brief sing-song, after which Mr. Archie McKinnon, with Harry and Hobbie, the tumbling twins, gave an athletic exhibition, which was much applauded. The athletes were continually shadowed by two clowns, one a policeman (Mr. E. Moore) and the other a weird-looking skeleton (Mr. Ken. Derbyshire). The clowns were the source of much fun, before the programme closed. Rev. Mr. Goodfellow addressed the gathering on behalf of the young people's department of First United Church.

Don't Let That Cold Turn Into "Flu"

That cold may turn into "flu," Grippe, or, even worse, pneumonia, unless you take care of it at once. It is a matter of life and death, and see how quickly it brings relief.

As effective as the mealy old mustard plaster; does the work without blister.

Musterole, made from pure oil of mustard, camphor, menthol and other simple ingredients, is a counter-irritant which stimulates circulation and helps break up the cold.

You will feel a warm tingle as it enters the pores, then a cooling sensation that brings welcome relief.

Masculine Type of Woman Lacks Appeal to Suzanne

Famous Tennis Star Gives Careful Study to Details of Her Wardrobe—Prefers Pretty and Attractive Clothes to Useful Sports Attire

In spite of her position as a leader in the world of sport, Suzanne Lenglen is distinctly feminine, in fact she abhors anything in the way of masculinity in a woman. In speaking of the women of America recently in the course of a conversation with Miss Anne Kinsolving, publicity agent for Mr. C. C. Pyle, Suzanne laughingly said: "The trouble with you is that the minute you do something, you must look as if you do it, but in France, no! No Frenchwoman wants to look as though she did. It is always the exotic bloom the cultured hothouse flower that she must be."

All Suzanne's frocks are designed by Jean Patou, and clothes with the tennis star are of paramount importance. She brings with her on her tour, eleven trunks full of clothes. But there are no sports clothes in the popular sense of the term. Suzanne's ideal sports attire is distinctly feminine.

Suzanne's Attire

When she appears on the court she is clad in a coat of corded white velours, trimmed with white fox collar and wide cuffs. On her closely creased dark head she wears a turban band of two shades of crepe-de-chine, fastened in front with a diamond. This swathed band which has come to be accepted as the Lenglen band, matches a camel's hair sweater, such colors as pale maize, pink, orchid, blue and rose being particular favorites. Her short pleated skirt is of white crepe-de-chine, finished with a square-necked sleeveless bodice, which allows for freedom and grace when Suzanne removes the crepe-de-chine sleeveless jumper which she wears under her woolly sweater. During an exhibition she changes the color scheme of her turban and jumpers several times.

Eye shades are taboo with Lenglen, for "they savor of masculinity," she says, and woolen stockings, brogues and flat heels—Well, a shrug disposes of them.

Extravagant Suzanne

Suzanne Lenglen might even be called extravagant in the matter of stockings, for she wears only hose of the sheerest flesh-colored silk with lace "clocks," and she dons a new pair each time she plays. She has a magnetic personality and great charm. She is intensely interested in art, and never loses an opportunity of visiting art galleries, museums and places of interest upon arriving at cities on her tour. With her, tennis is an art and graceful postures and movement are to her as essential as the actual technique of the game. In consequence she is unusually graceful and has a remarkable carriage. She is five feet six inches in height and weighs one hundred and twenty-six pounds.

Suzanne's Engagements

In speaking of her rumored engagement Suzanne admitted that while she has been reported to be engaged thirty-two times and has actually seen eleven of the supposed fiancés, there is no truth whatever in the alleged engagement. She is far more at ease with men than with women, she admires the masculine viewpoint and understands it. She loves dancing and social amusements, her great regret being that the present tour does not allow for much time for social functions.

Weddings

Marks-Mercer

A quiet wedding took place on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomson, 2655 Cedar Hill Road, when Mr. Edwin Stuart united in marriage Miss Elizabeth Mercer and Mr. Isaac Ernest Marks. Following the ceremony a reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Marks will reside at 2654 Fernwood Road.

Smith-Pitney

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Elizabeth Pitney, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pitney, 2013 Hainsford Street, to Mr. William Smith, only son of Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, 816 King's Road, took place on Saturday evening at the Centennial Church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. P. Westman.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in her wedding gown of ivory crepe-back satin, simple of line, daintily trimmed with silver roses. A coronet of real lace and orange blossoms confined the lace veil to the coiffure. She wore as her only ornament the gift of the groom, a white gold bracelet studded with rubies and rhinestones. Her shower bouquet was of Ophelia roses and maidenhair fern, tied with white tulle. The bridemaid was Miss Muriel Howebottom, who was gowned in mauve flat crepe silk, simple of line, trimmed with rhinestones and a Congo turban, made of silver cloth, trimmed with mauve roses and carried a large bouquet of pink and white carnations and maidenhair fern tied with mauve tulle. Miss Clara Howebottom and Miss Agnes Spaven made dainty flower girls both carrying baskets to match their dress of pink and white chrysanthemums. Mr. Elmer Grant Smith was best man.

During the signing of the register, Mrs. Matthews played Lemare's "Andantino."

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Harmony Hall, where the young couple received their guests. The hall was decorated with pink, white and bronze chrysanthemums. In the centre of the room a wedding bell was hung, beneath which was a three-tier wedding cake. During the evening Miss Molly Graham sang a solo. Dancing was carried on and a buffet supper was served.

VIOLIN CLASS AGAIN DELIGHTS AUDIENCE

Pupils of Mr. George J. Dyke Entertain Juvenile Listeners With Varied Programme

Victoria West juveniles were much interested on Friday evening in a special concert which took place in the Assembly Hall of the Victoria West School, under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association. The hall was filled to capacity, and a varied programme, which took nearly two hours to complete, was received with much enthusiasm. The occasion was another demonstration by the violin classes of the public schools, twenty-five members, under the direction of the instructor, Mr. George J. Dyke, rendering the first part of the programme, which consisted of solos, duets, and ensemble numbers. These received abundant applause throughout, and much surprise was expressed at the progress made with these classes since their inauguration two years ago.

Among the numbers on the first part of the programme were Haydn's "Minuet," "The Dixies" Carnival, "Regents Square," with solo by Raymond Griffith, and Irish and Scottish numbers, all by the ensemble; and duets by Alice and James Allen (Clara Howebottom and Ellen Brayshaw), and by pupils of divisions 1, 2 and 3, a club-swinging demonstration by Mr. T. Gibson, vocal solos by Mrs. F. White and Miss Winifred White, and a cornet solo by Mr. G. H. E. Green.

The second part of the programme

NEWS OF THE SPORTING WORLD

Amateur Hockey Clubs Are Preparing for Action

Season Will Be Ushered in on Friday at Victoria Arena—Tillicums Due to Meet Shells in Open at 8 o'clock, Followed by United Services and Colonist—Strong Line-Ups Are Announced

Tillicums vs. Shells, 8 o'clock.
United Services vs. Colonist, 9 o'clock.

These are the opening fixtures for the Victoria and District Amateur Hockey League which will get under way on Friday. A glance at the players' roll of the various clubs will go to show the followers of Canada's national winter pastime just how the various clubs will stack up in the race for the title. Prospects this season look brighter than ever before and indications point to some good hockey being played.

With the passing of the professional club the Simulacra will hold full sway at the Willows Ice Palace, and it will be up to them to provide the fans with the right kind of entertainment.

It will be noticed by the line-ups of the clubs that a number of new faces will be seen in action at the Willows this year. According to advance dispatches these new arrivals are good men, but these rumors are nothing out of the ordinary and it is just a matter of seeing the boys perform before anything can be said as to their ability.

For the past two weeks the teams have been holding workouts at the arena and the rival managers report their men in first-class condition and just waiting for the whistle that will set them going in quest of the 1926-27 city championship. Friday's games will no doubt be keenly contested and the players will be out to do their utmost to catch a place on the all-star team that in all probability will play the visiting Port Arthur aggregation which is due to perform here on December 10.

Final arrangements for the opening ceremonies have not as yet been completed.

As far as can be ascertained at present the playing roll of the various clubs to date is as follows:

Shells—Stuart, Burnett, Saunders, Foster, Tuckwell, Quenell, J. McDonald, Johnston, Rust and Nicholson.
Tillicums—A. Strath, Gattman, Glazen, Simpson, Mowat, Smith, McCandell, Green and Manuel.
United Services—Ingram, Lay, Martindale, Grant, McAdam, Pursons, Corville, Spence and McKen.
Colonist—H. Campbell, Belcher, Stanley, Goodacre, Temple, J. Stuart, Baylis, Tyrell, Owens and Woods.

LEASE FOR WILLOWS AND RACES SETTLED

CITY COUNCIL DECIDES ON FORM OF AGREEMENTS TO BE SIGNED BY TENDERS

For First Time City Retains Right to Control "Racing Privileges"—Tenders to Be Advertised

After months of fighting for retention of the racing privileges the City Council last night finally agreed upon the willows lease to be offered to the B.C. Agricultural Association. By a unanimous vote it was decided that the lease, which for the first time gives the city the right to retain the letting of racing privileges, should be signed.

The specifications for tenders to be called for the racing privileges and the agreement of lease was also finally decided upon by last night's meeting of the City Council.

Tenders will be called for the leasing of racing privileges for a period of years by the City Council immediately. The closing date has been set as January 15, 1927. Outstanding in the specifications are that the successful tenderer shall install automatic betting machines for straight, place and show betting and that the successful tenderer shall put up a company guarantee bond of $10,000. This is to protect the city and the B.C. Agricultural Association should the races not be held.

The successful tenderer must also first obtain the City Council's approval of the date of every race meeting proposed to be held on the willows race track. In the lease it is provided that the successful tenderer "will use every effort to secure the holding of horse racing during the term of the annual fair held by the B.C. Agricultural Association as far as the city has power to do against racing not being held during fair week. This was a strong point in the B.C. Agricultural Association's argument that they be given control of the racing privileges. The association wanted full guarantee that the racing would be held during fair week.

GUELPH, Ont., Nov. 29.—Dr. W. W. Willoughby, one of the city's best known citizens was stricken last night by an apoplectic stroke and died at the general hospital this morning. He was a brother of Senator A. B. Willoughby, Moose Jaw, Sask.

TELL OF EXPORT LIQUOR TRADING

Mr. Hunter stated that orders for liquor were telephoned or wired over from the United States, and the company gave clearances for boats to points where the purchasers said they would be on hand to get the shipments.

Mr. Rowell: I see that on April 14, Mr. C. Fulton, Portland, ordered liquors to the value of $2,864. Tell us how that would be shipped out. Witness: We would get the order probably by phone, and would enter it in the order book. The money is wired to the bank here. We make out a clearance for the point of destination at which the purchaser will be at. We make out a declaration for the master of the vessel, the Customs clear the boat, and the ship is loaded. The captain is given the invoice and instructed to meet the American boat at a certain place. The exchange cargo is made the same night. Reports are made to the Liquor Control Board, and the cash is entered in the cash book.

Neither Confirms Nor Denies

Mr. Rowell: I am told that these boats are either intercepted at sea and the cargoes transferred to other boats, or that they proceed off the California coast and unload the liquor there. What have you to say about that?

Mr. Hunter: I am not in a position to confirm or deny it.

Do the purchasers give their real names to you when they give their orders?

Witness: No. They give us some name, and that is entered in the order book, and they correspond.

Chief Justice Brown—You are not concerned with the names, once you have got the money.

Mr. Hunter: Naturally not.

Mr. Rowell—Have you any system of pass words at all?

Witness: None that I know of.

Kenneth Hughes on Stand

Mr. Kenneth Hughes, who has been a clerk for the Consolidated Exporters since 1922, took the witness stand and said the orders for liquor were received over the telephone and by wire, sometimes by persons calling in at the office.

The deliveries made were presumed to be to purchasers from the United States, he said. Orders were taken from practically any United States point within reach.

It was nearly a year since the Consolidated Exporters granted credit to any of its customers, Mr. Hughes stated. He will be the first witness to stand when the Commission session opens this morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Captain Charles Bright, owner and master of the boat 1277, said he had been receiving liquor cargoes since he acquired the vessel two years ago. The boat made fourteen trips in 1924, sixteen trips last year and twenty-six trips this year. The vessel had not been running for the last six weeks as she had been tied up by the Customs.

Falls to Report on

Witness said that, returning from one of his trips he called at Cadboro Bay and had failed to report in. The patrol cutter Winnemac came in and reported the 1277 having been there. Collector of Customs Davey took the matter up with him, he said, and he was fined $100 and his boat was tied up awaiting final decision from Ottawa.

Mr. Rowell—Was there not also another reason why you got into difficulty with the Customs Department?

Witness: Yes, replied. "When the patrol boat came up to the 1277 I had twenty cases on board and showed permits covering that amount. On examination of the records they found I had permits for twenty-five cases and wanted to know where the five cases had gone to."

Mr. Rowell—Tell us what happened to those five cases?

Witness: On my previous trip out I took five cases more than I had cleared for.

Mr. Rowell—You knew that was against the law?

Witness: I don't know. Mr. Davey said he was not satisfied with the explanation.

Witness—I don't know. Mr. Davey said he was not satisfied with the explanation.

East Launches Offensive Against Grey Wolf

So severe have been the depredations of wolves recently in some parts of Northern Ontario that many farmers have had to abandon sheep raising, and the province has practically wiped out. The Ontario Government has decided to launch an offensive in four townships and is enlisting the co-operation of wolf hunters in the Kenora district. Though the bounty was decreased from $40 to $15 per wolf, over 4,000 have been killed so far this year, as compared with less than 2,000 for the whole of 1925.

18. When the vessel discharged eight cases there. She came back to Cadboro Bay and anchored there, awaiting orders about the other twelve cases.

Q—I suppose there wasn't an American boat there to take the twelve cases?

A—No. The boat that was supposed to get the twelve cases failed to turn up.

Q—Did you go back to Bowen Island?

A—Yes, and landed the twelve cases on the beach. The other boat was there to pick up the cargo.

Q—How did you know it was the right party?

A—I compared his list with mine, and they corresponded. I had a paper with the liquor that were to be picked up on the beach by the American boat. And when the man on that vessel showed me his list, I knew he was the right party.

Compare Lists

A—I compared his list with mine, and they corresponded. I had a paper with the liquor that were to be picked up on the beach by the American boat. And when the man on that vessel showed me his list, I knew he was the right party.

Q—Did you ever deliver liquor to Bowen Island unless there was someone there with orders to receive it?

A—Never. Sometimes I got there first, and sometimes they were there before I was.

Q—Do the American boats prefer the liquor being taken to Bowen Island rather than at Maple Bay?

A—Yes, because it is nearer the United States.

Q—How many boats in the last three years have taken liquor from you at Bowen Island?

A—About two dozen.

Q—How many this year?

A—Four different boats.

Q—Then three or four customers are served there?

A—Yes. When orders are received from certain persons, we know what boats will meet us at Bowen Island.

Q—Do you know who the people are whose names appear on the order book?

A—No. I think they are all fictitious.

Captain H. A. Lunn

Captain Henry Adam Lunn testified he had been for the years skipper of the Elgo, which was owned by Mr. Joseph Fleming, of Victoria. The vessel carried cargoes of duty-paid liquor. Prior to his departure from the Elgo, he was master of a freight steamer which carried general freight.

Mr. Rowell asked witness how much he got when he sailed the freight steamer.

Witness: I got $175 per month straight wage when I was working full time.

Mr. Rowell—How much pay have you received while captain of the Elgo?

Captain Lunn—No steady wage.

Mr. Rowell—What was the basis of compensation?

Witness—I got one-third, after the expenses were paid.

The commission was advised that the Elgo made 176 trips in 1924, all destined for Maple Bay; in 1925, 126 trips for Bowen Island, and 1926 thus far, 41 trips for Sea Island.

Lands Cargoes on the Beach

Mr. Rowell—Let us take your trips to Sea Island. Did you take any of your cargoes there this year?

Captain Lunn—Yes, I did, and landed the liquor on the beach.

Mr. Rowell—How do you realize what you are saying. My instructions are to the contrary.

Witness—Yes, I carried out my business, taking the cargoes to the place for which they were cleared through this port.

Q—Was anyone on the beach when you arrived with the liquor?

A—Yes, one or two men.

Q—How did you know they were the men waiting for you?

A—I gave them the signal.

Q—What were the signals?

A—There were various signals. Sometimes it was loud language.

Captain Lunn told of the last trip the Elgo had made in 1925, when it landed seventy-one cases of liquor here and left last Thursday at 5 p.m., arriving at Sea Island on Friday at 3:30 a.m. The Elgo returned here on Saturday at 1 p.m.

Mr. Rowell—Don't you know who the men were at Sea Island that were there when you arrived?

Captain Lunn—No.

Q—When did you get the signal?

A—Kenneth Hughes, of the Consolidated Exporters, gave it to me in October.

Q—What signal did he give you?

A—The signal was "Nothing to it."

Q—Does it usually suit you to make trips at night?

A—Yes.

Q—What percentage of your trips are made from here at night?

A—About ninety-five per cent.

Q—Have you ever met any boats?

A—Yes.

Q—Well, have you ever transferred liquor to any other boats?

A—No, never, except to our own rowboat, but this liquor was later restored to the vessel.

Captain Lunn testified that he had put the liquor on the beach at Sea Island at any place that was handy. He discharged the cargo as quickly as possible, and the men were supposed to be there to pick it up.

Mr. Rowell—How is the liquor carried off from Sea Island?

Witness—Perhaps by boat, or maybe by motor car.

Mr. Rowell—Well, which do you think?

Witness—I don't know.

Mr. Rowell—To whom did you give the liquor at Bowen Island?

Captain Lunn—I don't remember.

"To a man named Rodriguez, at San Blas, Mexico," he replied.

"What kind of a sales contract has the Manitoba Refinery with the Mexican buyer?" Mr. Rowell inquired.

Mr. Stewart—We have no written contracts, as it is not usual to enter into written contracts. It was done verbally.

Mr. Rowell—Has the person from San Blas paid for the goods?

Mr. Stewart—Partly, I believe.

Q—What was the selling price of the goods?

A—I don't know.

Q—How many cases has the Chris Moeller loaded so far?

A—Seventeen thousand cases in Vancouver and 3,700 cases to be loaded here.

Q—Would $30 per case be a moderate figure for it?

A—I would like to get that much.

Q—Is that the selling price to the man at San Blas?

A—No, about $14 or $15 per case.

Q—Now, how do you know the goods are going to San Blas?

A—That's where they are being cleared for.

Q—Did you ever hear that some of the cargoes do not reach their destination in Mexico?

A—I have seen in the papers that some have not.

Q—You have never heard outside of what you have read in the press, that these liquor cargoes that leave here do not go to Mexico, but are transhipped to American boats.

Well, I have heard it freely discussed.

Q—Were the goods the Chris Moeller show loading sold before they were ordered?

A—Yes; partially.

Q—There was some delay in the shipment of the goods after they arrived from the United Kingdom?

A—Yes; financial troubles.

Q—Where is the consignor going to sell the liquor?

A—Where he can find the best market, I suppose.

Q—Wasn't the Manitoba Refinery, Limited, organized for the purpose of selling the liquor back into Canada or the United States?

A—No; I can say not back into Canada.

Q—Where else to sell, excepting to the United States?

A—Down the Pacific Coast.

Q—Where did you expect to find a market?

A—Down the Coast.

Q—In the United States?

A—Well, it reaches the Pacific Coast of the United States ultimately.

The Immediate Market

Mr. Rowell stated that the Pacific Coast of the United States, as far as the Commission had record of, was the immediate market of these vessels clearing from Victoria with liquor cargoes for Mexico and South America.

Mr. Rowell suggested that the Commission ask Mr. Davey to withhold the clearance certificate of the Chris Moeller and have Mr. Rosentoff testify at today's session.

The Commission estimated it would be pleased if Mr. Davey would hold the ships for the present.

Mr. Davey consented to hold back the clearance.

The Commission was advised that the Manitoba Refinery was incorporated last March, with George E. Andrews, of Winnipeg, as president; Duff-Stewart, of Vancouver, and John L. Stewart as the original shareholders. Since then, however, a number of others had become shareholders.

Captain Arthur George Lilly, skipper of the vessel Chris Moeller, was called to the stand and presented the ship's papers.

Mr. Rowell inquired how much pay he would receive for the voyage.

"It has not been decided yet," Captain Lilly said.

Mr. Rowell—Who will fix the amount?

Captain Lilly—Likely the Eastern Freighters, who have chartered the Chris Moeller to carry cargoes for the Manitoba Refinery, Limited.

"Did you tell them what you would like to receive in pay?" Mr. Rowell inquired.

Witness: I suggested that I would like to get $500 per month.

Mr. Rowell—Did they lead you to expect you would receive $500 per month?

"Yes, they did," Captain Lilly replied.

In response to a query of counsel, Captain Lilly declared he had $115 per month, $110 and $130 for sailing various ships before he engaged in handling ships carrying liquor cargoes.

Q—How much have you got since you started sailing boats with liquor cargoes?

A—$500 per month.

Q—Why do you get so much for carrying liquor?

A—I can't really say.

Captain Lilly said that the first officers on boats carrying liquor that he had shipped had received $350 per month; second officers $250 per month; third officers $175 per month, and seamen $125 per month.

LUTHER'S PART IN REFORMATION SHOWN

Dean Quainton, in Scholarly Lecture, Shows Reformer as One of the Greatest Religious Geniuses

"The Reformation as guided by Luther was Christological. In the hands of Calvin it was theological," said Dean Quainton last night in the course of his appreciative historical sketch of the sixteenth century reformer, in whom he found, despite his faults of extravagance, illogicality, and in one outstanding instance, jealousy, one of the greatest religious geniuses of the Christian era.

The Dean rapidly reviewed the early boyhood and young manhood of Luther, touching on his peasant origin, his careful upbringing and education, and some of the social, political, and economic conditions of Europe—and particularly Germany—at that time.

Luther a Monk

It was at Erfurt, where he attended university, that Luther had first come under the influence which turned him from law to church. He joined a monastery, and there, after terrible spiritual and physical agony, finally attained a peace of spirit which ended in his ordination.

He became a professor of theology at Wittenberg, where he showed originality, but, for a time at least, no heroism. Suddenly, however, he startled the church by his sermon on indulgence, in which he opposed the generally accepted view of the clergy. This was a direct protest against the framing by the Archbishop of Mainz and the selling by John Tetzel of indulgences proclaimed by Pope Pius Six. Students clamored for copies of these theses, and Luther himself was amazed at the reception given to points which he had offered merely for the sake of debate. In these theses it was argued that an indulgence could not remit guilt nor the divine punishment for sin, and that merits could not be deposited in a treasury as in a bank, out of which they could be taken by the Pope and distributed.

Rome, at first indifferent, at last realized the effect of these theses in lessening the sale of indulgences, and took measures to silence Luther. The history of the aspirations of Charles V; the Diet of Worms, before which Luther was summoned, and his explanation of the effect of the reformer's preaching on the masses. But later, when the revolt was at its height, Luther was forgotten, his influence utterly unavailing, by a movement in which he was, after all, a mere incident.

Before concluding his lecture with a picture of the happy domestic life in which Luther closed his days, Dean Quainton revealed the serious weakness which Luther betrayed in allowing himself to become a signatory to the bigamous marriage of Philip of Hesse. The argument which was attached to this "Jeuneuil document" was that while the law of the land prohibited bigamy, also the church, nevertheless the church, in isolated cases of dire need might sanction bigamy, such bigamous marriage being "in marriage in the sight of God," but not true marriage in the eye of public law and custom, and therefore to be kept secret.

Luther's own wife had been

RICARDO CORTEZ AS PIRATE AT DOMINION

Handsome Star Wins Admiration in "The Eagle of the Sea," Paramount's Latest Thriller

Ricardo Cortez is making hosts of new friends and admirers this week at the Dominion Theatre where he appears in a screen version of "The Eagle of the Sea," a gigantic production of the last of the Spanish Main pirates.

In this photoplay, Paramount's handsome leading man portrays the buccaner leader, Jean Lafitte, terror of the Mexican Gulf. Coming to New Orleans in disguise, he wins the admiration of Florence Vidor. However, his true identity is discovered by General Andrew Jackson, at a masked ball and he is given twenty-four hours to leave town.

Casting lace and ruffles aside, Cortez dons ragged clothes to gain his pirate crew. They set sail on the Seraphine to perform one final raid prior to leaving the sea forever.

"The Eagle of the Sea" was written by Charles Toney Jackson and scenarized by Julien Josephson. Frank Lloyd, producer of "The Sea Hawk," directed Paramount's latest under the supervision of Associate Producer B. P. Schulberg.

CORINNE CAPITALES IN "SYNCOPATING SUE"

First National Beauty Wins Unflinching Praise From Audiences at Capitol

Corinne Griffith is annexing a lot of titles these days. "Liberty" recently acclaimed her the most beautiful woman in the world. Broadway critics have long classed her as one of the screen's best actresses and last night the huge audience at the Capitol Theatre, who saw her latest release, "Syncopating Sue," voted her one of the dearest comedienne on the silver sheet.

Personally this reviewer likes light comedies of this type better than anything else Hollywood offers, and Corinne Griffith last night rose to the role of "favorite" in Victoria. "Syncopating Sue" has a probable, pleasant plot; a well mixed combination of good drama and good comedy and a cast that would fill any house with any pleasure.

Corinne Griffith is the role of a song-plucker who wants to move from her piano in Tin Pan Alley to the footlights of Broadway, gives one of the most deft and entertaining performances of her screen career.

PLAYHOUSE The luxurious French line, stamship. De-Grasse was turned over to First National for the filming of scenes for the latest Milton Sills' starring picture, "Puppets," which is this week's attraction at the Playhouse Theatre. Scenes were made on the deck, on the gangplank and on the deck of the vessel.

Milton Sills, Gertrude Olmstead, Francis McDonald, Mathilde Comont, William Rickard and Lucien Prival were among the players who took part in these scenes.

Sir Harry Lauder Will Tour the Dominion

Sir Harry Lauder, Noted Scottish Comedian, Has Arrived in This Country With Lady Lauder, to Begin a Coast to Coast Tour.

COLUMBIA Combined with an absorbing story, "Paris at Midnight" is an unusual by fine Metropolitan picture presented at the Columbia Theatre, last night also features thrills, mystery and suspense. A mysterious, sinister figure flits through the production, wreaking vengeance upon his enemies and bringing comfort to the oppressed. His exploits and movements are most thrilling. The magnificent art students' ball featured in the picture, is a marvel of screen technique. Jette Gould, Lionel Barrymore, Mary Brian and Edmund Burns have the featured roles. All acquit themselves admirably. The supporting cast, headed by Emil Chautard, was excellent in every respect.

COLISEUM Last night the Coliseum Theatre production of "Believe Me Xantippe" was received with much applause by a large audience that found plenty of merit right through in following the adventures of a young man, who, as an amateur, enters the ranks of criminals. Unfortunately he finds that the odds are all on him getting caught. The cell of a Colorado prison has not the comfort of a New York flat, but the hero learns quite a lot during his adventures in the underworld. High-class vaudeville during the change of scenery includes a very picturesque exhibition of the new Valencia Waltz.

"Student Prince" at Royal Victoria Next Thursday Evening

"The Student Prince" will finally arrive at the Royal Victoria Theatre on Thursday night to play a three-night engagement. The organization numbers close to one hundred people and is the heaviest show traveling on the road today. Among its personnel is a singing aggregation of fifty men, all with conservatory trained voices. And it must not be thought that the girl element has been neglected, since without the twenty in the company, the third act ball-room scene would lose half its charm. "The Student Prince" is in four acts and a prologue. Its scenes being laid in Karlsruhe, the hereditary home of Prince Karl Franz, and in Heidelberg, where the Prince goes to attend the university as a student. There he falls in love with Kathie, the inn-keeper's daughter, but love, unfortunately, interferes with the plans and designs of statesmanship and the audience leaves the theatre with a tender feeling for a young romance that could not reach its fulfilment.

BENEVOLENT WORK MERITS SUPPORT

Social Service League, Which Does Much Good in Unostentatious Way, Cautions for Members

One of the most commendable benevolent movements in the city is that which, under the title of the Social Service League, attempts to adjust the unhappy and unfortunate to normal conditions of life, and generous public support may therefore be claimed for the subscription campaign which the committee is conducting this week. Messrs. David Spencer, Limited, have very kindly permitted the society to have a stand at the Douglas Street entrance for the whole six days, and the ladies who are to be on duty each day will gladly receive donations and membership dues.

The Social Service League, which has headquarters at Room 45, Arcade Building, was organized in 1912, with the announced objects of relieving, as far as possible, independence and normal life to individuals and families deprived of such blessings; to take part in the community's programme for social betterment; and to serve as a co-operating centre for all agencies interested in the various phases of family and community work.

Unostentatious Work
The work is all carried on very unostentatiously, and the individuals and families assisted have long since learned that they can trust those to whom they give their confidence. This is, perhaps, one reason why the work is so little heard of outside the immediate circle of the workers or those assisted. When a family is reported to the committee, a trained worker promptly calls as a friendly visitor to inquire with a view to helping the family and analyze and solve its difficulties and make careful inquiry into the causes of the trouble. In some cases emergency material relief must be given, such as food, clothing, etc. The friendly visitor always keeps in mind, however, a constructive plan which has in view the removing of the difficulties and the placing of the family on a self-supporting and self-reliant basis. In some instances the visitor finds natural sources of relief through relatives, friends, lodges, etc. Poverty cannot be patched up by doling out money, but conditions can be relieved by ministrations of human service, science and education.

300 Families
During the past year 300 families came under the society's care. Officers of the local organization are as follows: President, Mr. H. S. Anderson; first vice-president, Rev. H. T. Archibald; second vice-president, Mrs. C. D. Schofield; secretary, Mrs. F. A. Osborne; treasurer, Mrs. G. R. Chisholm.

The staff at the office consists of the general secretary, Miss Olive Snyder; case worker, Miss Linzell,

North Saanich Social Club Activities

NORTH SAANICH, Nov. 29.—The Ladies' Auxiliary of the North Saanich Social Club will entertain on Thursday evening, December 2, from 8 until 12 o'clock in the club rooms, School Crossroads. Twenty games of military five hundred will be played, which will be followed by refreshments and dancing. The ladies are arranging this social evening in order to augment their funds for the Christmas gifts and supper which will be given to about 150 children. There will be no charge, but an opportunity will be given to those wishing to contribute to this Christmas fund.

The North Saanich Social Club held its regular card party and social evening in the club rooms, School Crossroads, on Saturday night. There was a splendid turnout of members and their friends, who spent a most enjoyable time at progressive five hundred, which was played at fourteen tables. The lady's prize was presented to Mrs. George Clarke, and the gentleman's was awarded to Mr. Toomer. At the conclusion of the game the dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Toomer and Mrs. Wilson, after which dancing was indulged in until midnight, the club's six-piece orchestra supplying the efficient music.

"Barbados" Roofing

"Sico" Roofings are proving their worth all over the world. There are three special grades: BARBADOS, Premier and Star.

"BARBADOS" Is the best quality—The best that money can buy

And here are some reasons why "Barbados" is the tip-top of all roofings:

1. Very highly oxidized.
2. Best grade of rags used in its manufacture.
3. Extra superior quality of asphalt used.
4. Has the highest melting point.
5. Has the lowest penetration.

If You Want to Know Why the Best Is Cheapest in Roofing Then Order "Barbados."

If you're sure that you really cannot afford "Barbados" then try "Premier" quality, for it's a fine roofing too, and a great resister against inclement weather, extreme heat and cold.

Concert and Dance Held at Duncan Opera House—Some of the Features

DUNCAN, Nov. 27.—Courts Alpha and Bernard A.O.F., staged a most enjoyable concert, which was followed by a dance in the Opera House here on Thursday evening, when they were greeted with a packed house. The main programme consisted of a two-act comedy entitled "Mr. Hob," in which all the cast took their parts exceptionally well, and which proved a decided success. Mr. J. E. Saunders portrayed the character of "Jenkins," Miss Luke's butler; Mrs. R. B. Rayatt as "Miss Luke," Aunt Becky; Miss Betty Paul as "Patty," Miss Luke's maid; Mrs. H. P. Swan as "Katherine," Miss Luke's niece; Mr. Lindley Brookbank as "Philip Royson," Miss Luke's nephew; Mrs. F. Rutledge as "Marion Brazant," Katherine's friend, and Mr. Alex. Martineau as "Mr. Brown," of Benson & Benson, solicitors.

The concert opened with a chorus by the entire cast. Mr. Martineau and Miss Betty Paul were heard in a Pierrot and Pierrette duet, and Mrs. E. T. Jennings in a solo. Then followed the comedy, "Mr. Hob," during the interval between acts, Mr. J. H. Hackett and Mr. W. T. Sandilands gave an interlude "Gold Dust Twins."

Ladysmith Girl's Guild Organize 'A Sale of Work'

LADYSMITH, Nov. 29.—The Girl's Guild and Little Helpers of St. John's Church, held a most successful combined sale of work and home-cooking in the parish hall on Saturday. The various stalls were most attractive, the decorations were most artistic, giving the hall a fairytale appearance. The sale of the many useful Christmas gifts and the variety of dainty home cooking products, realized a very substantial sum at the end of the day, great credit being due to the junior workers.

Son of Pioneer Nanaimo Resident Passes on Sunday

NANAIMO, Nov. 29.—The death occurred on Sunday morning of Benjamin Baker, sixty-eight, and a native son of Nanaimo. The late Mr. Baker was a son of Mr. George Baker, who with his wife, arrived in Nanaimo on the sailing ship Princess Royal, seven-and-a-half years ago on Saturday last. The late Benjamin Baker was born in Nanaimo, and has resided in the city all his life. At one time he was alderman on the City Council, representing the South Ward, was also a member of the police force, and later acted as city foreman.

He is survived by his widow and two daughters, the Misses Pearl and Maud, and one son, Raymond, in Nanaimo. He also leaves a daughter, Mrs. H. T. Steed, of Portland, Oregon.

The death occurred at the family residence, Haliburton Street, on Saturday morning of Robert Hirst, sixty, a resident of this city for the past thirty-five years. He was a native of Illinois, U.S., and came to Nanaimo in 1891, and since that time has been employed around the local mines.

He leaves his widow, three daughters, Mrs. A. B. Campbell, of Vancouver, Sadie and Dorothy, residing at home, two sons, Robert and Jack, and brother, Albert, and two sisters, Mrs. Martinelli and Mrs. A. Fueter, residing in the United States. He was a member of the local Odd Fellows' Lodge, under whose auspices the funeral will be held on Tuesday afternoon from the family residence, Mrs. Bewick, of the Progressive Spiritualist Society, conducting the services.
